...am Era.

the Best Interests of Oldham County.

...KY, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1912. Number 39.

Our Printing Department is in charge of good workmen and our charges are no more than you pay for poor work.

RELIGIOUS NOTES.

(Communicated)

Sunday night at the Methodist ch The Young Peoples Missionary ty had charge of the Epworth ue hour. Miss Irene Hitt, as man, conducted the meeting in st commendable way. After a and prayer Mrs. W. J. Caplinger ntroduced to the young people eir new lady manager. She a short talk, assuring them of interest in them and their work, asking for co-operation. Mrs. J. se told of the Missionary Insti- which she had attended at Mil- Rev. W. S. Maxwell spoke a minutes on the benefits to be de from a Missionary Study Class, om a Teachers Training Class. Jerine Lee was appointed dele- o the Missionary meeting at yville the first of this week.

* * *

meeting at the Methodist t is being well attended and the are listening to strong forcе- rmons by the pastor, Farwell. Every Saturday and afternoon during the meet- ns will be held a special ser- or children at 2:30 o'clock. meetings should be well at- as we have many children in rs and community who are old to be considering their duty

Those who have been at- the evening services have ry much annoyed by thought- ple who talked and laughed tantly that those near them ot hear the minister. Many members have said that they

KILLED IN OKLAHOMA.

William E. Harlan, Formerly of Louisville, and Nephew of Capt. J. B. and Mr. Ed Harlan, of this City, Shot by Negro Employe.

The news of the killing of Mr. William E. Harlan, of Muskogee, Oklahoma, was a shock to his friends here, where he and his sister had often visited. He was a nephew of Capt. J. B. and Mr. Ed Harlan, of this city.

Mr. Harlan was shot by a negro farm hand in a dispute over some money which the negro owed him, and which he was about to hold out of his wages.

Mr. Harlan left Louisville about three years ago to engage in farming in Oklahoma. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Ada Shelton, of Stanford, Ky., a daughter; his mother, Mrs. Ida Harlan, and a sister, Mrs. Harry Trent.

The negro who commited the crime has been captured.

The body was brought to Louisville for burial, and the funeral services were held Tuesday. Mrs. Harlan could not accompany her husband's remains, as their little daughter had just undergone an operation when her father was killed.

When you have a bad cold you want the best medicine obtainable so as to cure it with as little delay as possible. Here is a druggist's opinion: "I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for fifteen years," says Enos Lollar of Saratoga, Ind., "and consider it the best on the market." For sale by McDowell & Son.—Adv.

L. G. Booker Dead.

Mrs. J. R. Elliston last Thursday received the news of the sudden death of her brother, Mr. L. G. Booker, formery of Eminence, but now of New Orleans. Mr. and Mrs. Elliston and children left immediately for New Orleans. Mr. Booker was not feeling as well as usual at supper time but made no special complaint and was playing with his baby for some time. He handed it to his wife and lay down on the bed. His wife went to him a few minutes later and thought he had fainted, but on calling a physician found he had died of heart trouble. His body was brought back to Eminence for burial, and the funeral took place Monday. Mr. Booker leaves his wife and little baby, an aged mother and several brothers and sisters.

LAND, STOCK & CROP

Rev. Andrew Johnson bought a good young mule from Dale Powell last week.

☆ ☆ ☆

W. T. Conn, of Bedford, bought of Clellen Perkinson, of Corn Creek, a young milk cow for $60.

☆ ☆ ☆

Jas. H. Morris, of Smithfield, sold the Wm. Fleming farm of 114 acres at Crestwood, to Jesse F. Turner, of Smithfield, for $7,600.

☆ ☆ ☆

James H. Morris, real estate agent, of Smithfield, reports the sale of the W. A. Hawley farm of 128 acres, situated near Worth, this county, to R. [illegible]