Dear Willie:

I am out on a trip for our house for the purpose of selling some goods and making collections. I wrote you a few days ago from Tuiney, Ills. Now My Dear Willie I shall get off for the Old Dominion about the 20 November so you may look for me every day after that time. This leaves me very well but I want to come and see you all next month and shall endeavour to spend at least half the winter in old Virginia. Give my kind regards to your Dear Husband and believe me to

Your affectionate Uncle

P.M. Harlan

I expect my brother Tom will accompany me when I see you. I think perhaps we shall go to New York as Tom has promised he will go down south with us on a visit to our relations. Excuse haste goodby for the present

P.M.

(THIS IS PLEASANT MORRIS HARLAN)
