

Ancestors of Frances Bailey

Generation 1

1. Frances Bailey (daughter of John Bailey and Mary Thurmond) was born on 24 Mar 1801 in Wilson Co., TN. She died on 12 Nov 1888 in Gallatin Co., KY. She married James White Harlan (son of Joseph Harlan and Tabitha Goolsby) on 09 Nov 1819 in Nelson Co., VA. He was born on 16 Oct 1798 in Albemarle Co., VA. He died on 15 Dec 1870 in Bath County, VA (near Mountain Grove).

Notes for Frances Bailey:

Old bible and other information says Francis Bailey came from Russellville, Kentucky. She rode horseback with her father to Albemarle County, Virginia from Russellville at about the age of 14. She married in Albemarle County and did not return to Kentucky until she was an old woman.

Notes for James White Harlan:

Another source says James White Harlan died in Green County, Virginia, however, I believe Mountain Grove is correct since that is where they moved after the Civil War and is where his youngest son was born. He was a planter and tobacco inspector.

Generation 2

2. John Bailey (son of John Bailey and Mary Lyon) was born about 1767 in Virginia. He married Mary Thurmond (daughter of John B. Thurmond and Sarah Goolsby) on 15 Aug 1797 in Amherst Co., VA.
3. Mary Thurmond (daughter of John B. Thurmond and Sarah Goolsby) was born about 1771 in Virginia.

Notes for John Bailey:

The Bailey's went to Tennessee with the Thurmonds.

Notes for Mary Thurmond:

Mary's maiden name may have been spelled Thurmond.

Mary Thurmond and John Bailey had the following children:

 - i. Frances Bailey (daughter of John Bailey and Mary Thurmond) was born on 24 Mar 1801 in Wilson Co., TN. She died on 12 Nov 1888 in Gallatin Co., KY. She married James White Harlan (son of Joseph Harlan and Tabitha Goolsby) on 09 Nov 1819 in Nelson Co., VA. He was born on 16 Oct 1798 in Albemarle Co., VA. He died on 15 Dec 1870 in Bath County, VA (near Mountain Grove).
 - ii. Luisa Bailey (daughter of John Bailey and Mary Thurmond) was born on 07 Jan 1812.

Generation 3

4. John Bailey (son of Samuel Bailey) was born about 1740 in Virginia. He died about 1822 in Nelson Co., VA. He married Mary Lyon (daughter of Elisha Lyon and Phoebe Nix) about 1762 in Albemarle Co., VA.
5. Mary Lyon (daughter of Elisha Lyon and Phoebe Nix) was born about 1744 in Virginia. She died in 1787 in Albemarle Co., VA.

Notes for John Bailey:

Will of John Bailey, Nelson County, Virginia

Dated: March 2, 1821 Proved: October 27, 1823.

In the name of God, Amen. I, John Bailey, Sen., of Nelson Co. and State of Virginia, being of sound mind and memory, and calling to mind the uncertainty of life doth hereby make my last will and testament hereby revoking all other wills by me heretofore made.

Item. My will and desire is that all my just debts be paid and satisfied by my executors hereinafter named as early after my decease as convenient.

Item. My will and desire is that all my slaves and my 5 lands be divided into five equal lots, and that my sons John Bailey, Jr., Samuel Bailey, Terrisha Bailey, James Bailey, and my daughter, Jane Smith, be entitled each to one fifth part of the whole, or one lot so laid off and divided it is understood that my beloved wife, Frances Bailey have title to and enjoy the whole during her natural life; and it is further my will that my negro woman, Fanny, shall have the liberty of choosing her master or mistress among my 5 children aforesaid, and that she shall be so taken and received by such master or mistress at valuation and to be accounted for in the allotment aforesaid.

Item. It is further my will and desire that my beloved wife, Frances Bailey, hold and enjoy all the balance and residue of my Estate, both real and personal (after payment of my just debts and funeral expenses) for and during her natural life, and that so soon as may be convenient after her death, in case she shall be the longest liver, that the whole thereof be sold upon such terms as my exors. who shall be then living shall think most beneficial, and the proceeds thereof divided into 5 equal parts, and that my aforesaid 5 children (to-wit) John Bailey, Jr., Samuel Bailey, Terisha Bailey, James Bailey and Jane Smith or their legal representatives in case of the death of either of them have title thereto, and receive and enjoy the same to their use and behoof forever.

Item: It is further my will and desire that my son Elisha Bailey and my daughter Betsy Turner receive no part of my Estate whatever, as I have heretofore given them as much as I think my other children will receive, all of which I have heretofore given them I do hereby ratify and confirm.

Item. I do hereby give and convey unto my 5 said children (to-wit) John Bailey, Jr., Samuel Bailey, Terisha Bailey, James Bailey and Jane Smith, the property herein conveyed to them, to take effect after the death of my said beloved wife, Frances Bailey, a full and complete title to them and their heirs forever.

Item. I do hereby constitute and appoint my son Terrisha Bailey, and my son-in-law Charles Smith, my executors, my beloved wife, Frances Bailey executrix of this my last will and testament, with a request that they carry the same into execution. Given from under my hand and seal at my own house in Nelson County, this 2nd day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty one.

His John X Bailey, Sr. ( Seal)
Mark

In testimony whereof we, Charles Perrow, James P. Garland, and Clairborne Jones have hereunto subscribed our names at the request of the said John Bailey, Sr., James P. Garland, Clairborne Jones, Charles Perrow, Alexr. Blain, William Nalley

Notes for William Goolsby:

William and his brother were revolutionary soldiers.

Tabitha Goolsby and Jane were listed as children of William Goolsby who died in 1819 and their marriages are listed. Source: Marriage of Some, VA Residents 1607 - 1800, DF Welback.

Thomas Goolsby was one of the earliest settlers within the present bounds of the county. In 1732, thirteen years before its organization, he patented twelve hundred acres on James River. In 1745 he sold more than five hundred acres to Samuel Shelton, and in the description of the deed are mentioned two tributaries of the James, called Holmans and Goolsby's Creeks. This deed is noteworthy also from a memorandum inscribed on it in 1788, showing that it had been previously recorded, but the record had been destroyed by the British in 1781. Thomas Goolsby died in 1774. He was twice married, his last wife being Lucy Bryant. His children were William, Thomas, Susan, the wife of a Childress, Ann, the wife of a Nowling, Lucy, the wife of a Saunders, and Elizabeth. William owned land on the waters of the south fork of Hardware. He died in 18 19, and his children were William, Tabitha, the wife of Joseph Harlan, Tarleton, who married Mildred, daughter of Thomas Walker Jr., Sarah, the wife of a Thurmond, Susan, the wife of a Davis, Fleming, Jane, the wife of Samuel Harlan, Arthur, Mary, the wife of a Samuel Richardson, and Nancy, the wife of a Phillips.

Charles, James and John Goolsby, of Albemarle, were Revolutionary soldiers, members of the Ninth Virginia Regiment. Charles, who was a non-commissioned officer, and James were taken prisoners at Germantown; all three died in the service. They were beyond doubt sons of Thomas Sr., as William was stated to be their heir.

GOOLSBY.

Thomas Goolsby was one of the earliest settlers within the present bounds of the county. In 1732, thirteen years before its organization, he patented twelve hundred acres on James River. In 1745 he sold more than five hundred acres to Samuel Shelton, and in the description of the deed are mentioned two tributaries of the James, called Holmans and Goolsby's Creeks. This deed is noteworthy also from a memorandum inscribed on it in 1788, showing that it had been previously recorded, but the record had been destroyed by the British in 1781. Thomas Goolsby died in 1774. He was twice married, his last wife being Lucy Bryant. His children were William, Thomas, Susan, the wife of a Childress, Ann, the wife of a Nowling, Lucy, the wife of a Saunders, and Elizabeth. William owned land on the waters of the south fork of Hardware. He died in 1819, and his children were William, Tabitha, the wife of Joseph Harlan, Tarleton, who married Mildred, daughter of Thomas Walker Jr., Sarah, the wife of a Thurmond, Susan, the wife of a Davis, Fleming, Jane, the wife of Samuel Harlan, Arthur, Mary, the wife of a Samuel Richardson, and Nancy, the wife of a Phillips.

Charles, James and John Goolsby, of Albemarle, were Revolutionary soldiers, members of the Ninth Virginia Regiment. Charles, who was a non-commissioned officer, and James were taken prisoners at Germantown; all three died in the service. They were beyond doubt sons of Thomas Sr., as William was stated to be their heir.

On a deed from Thomas Goolsby to Samuel Shelton dated July 1745, the following memorandum was inscribed: "February Court, 1788. This Indenture was produced to the Court, and it appearing from a certificate on the same, that it had been formerly recorded in this Court, the record whereof was destroyed by the British in the year 1781, on motion of Samuel Shelton it was ordered by the Court that it be recorded again, in pursuance of an act of Assembly for that purpose." The act here referred to may be found in Hening XII, 497.

Samuel Shelton was settled in the county from the beginning. In 1745 he purchased five hundred and fifty acres of the twelve hundred acre tract on James River, granted to Thomas Goolsby in 1732; the endorsement on the conveyance of this land made in 1788, expressly mentions the destruction of the records by the British in 1781.

In 1732 were made eight grants, still confined to the James River, and the western base of the South West Mountain. One of these was made to Thomas Goolsby for twelve hundred acres "on the north side of the Fluvanna," that is, the James; another in the same region to Edward Scott for five hundred and fifty acres "at a place called Totier;" another for four hundred acres to John Key, the head of a family which subsequently owned all the land between the South West Mountain and the river from Edgemont to the bend below the Free Bridge; and another to Dr. Arthur Hopkins for four hundred acres "on the south side of the Rivanna, running to the mouth of a creek below Red Bank Falls, called Lewis' Creek." This last entry included the site of the future town of Milton.

Notes for Tabitah Turrentine:

After the death of Thomas, Tabitha married John Bond who was 34 years younger than her. She left a will in Culpepper Co., Virginia. She married John Bond 10 Aug. 1750. John was born about 1719.
